MESSENGERS OF THE GODS

This is a wildlife success story. A small acacia woodland on the shores of a Rift valley lake seems doomed to be felled, and unfortunately it is the home of a troupe of nineteen colubus monkeys, the only ones left in that part of the Rift. This programme is a fascinating study of how this group of animals live their daily lives, their conflicts and problems and how their greatest problem, that of survival, was solved by the enlightened attitude of the estate owner on whose property they lived.

Filmed by Bob Campbell.
Produced by Colin Willock.

THREE THOUSAND WISE MONKEYS

Once the Macaques swarmed all over the Japanese islands. Now only 3,000 are left in isolated pockets. Why wise? Because the Macaques have marvellously adapted themselves to the ways of man in one of the most overcrowded countries on earth. This fascinating film shows how they have done it.

Filmed by Joost Van Rees.
Produced by Colin Willock.

TIWAI: ISLAND OF THE APES

Tiwai island in Sierra Leone is a lonely and mysterious place, a remnant of a lost world. More than 2,000 primates live on the small island making it unique and fascinating

Filmed by Nick Gordon.
Produced by Caroline Brett.
